INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. Editors.

Monday Evening, Dec. 24, 1866.

The General Assembly.

This body adjourned this morning at six o'clock, to meet again on Tuesday, the 22d day of January next. The only business done was the ratification of the bills which had been passed and enrolled and not ratified. Some thirty or forty bills had been passed by the House, but had not been finally acted upon by the Senate.

Gen. Dockery.

The Standard announced on Saturday last, that the Washington Star had no authority from Gen. Dockery to place him in the category of favoring the Holden-Stevens bill, which attempts to ignore the existence of North Carolina as a State and to place her in the list of Territories. The reason assigned for this is, that he had not seen that bill at the time and therefore could not have endorsed it. We infer from the article of the Standard, that the Standard understands the General to endorse it, now that he has seen the bill. If this is Gen. Dockery's position, he owes it to the people of North Carolina to avow it openly. The men who favor such a project cannot be permitted to remain incognito. They must speak out or we shall bring them out from their hiding places.

Judge Buxton.

We take pleasure in stating, that we are authorized to state that Judge R. P. Buxton is incorrectly represented, in the article copied by us from the Washington Star, as favoring the disruption of the State government of North Carolina. Just as we expected.

VIRGINIA.—The name of Gen. Robt. E. Lee has been repeatedly suggested for the next Governor of Virginia. We presume General Lee would not permit the use of his name.

A writer in the Richmond Whig proposes the name of Maj. Wm. T. Sutherlin, of Danville, Va.

THE FIELD AND FIRESIDE.—We have been informed that this literary paper contains a very scurrilous, abusive, and wholly unprovoked attack upon the Sentinel. As we do not read that paper we have not seen it, nor do we expect to.

CAPTIONS.—We give to-day the Captions of the Acts and Resolutions passed at the recent session of the General Assembly. We are indebted to R. W. Best, Esq., Secretary of State, for the Captions.

THE EPISCOPAL METHODIST.—The North Carolina Publishing Company, which formerly published the N. C. Christian Advocate, have issued a Prospectus and propose to publish a Weekly Church paper in this City, under the title of "The Episcopal Methodist." The first number will be issued in January next, on new type and good paper, containing 24 columns. The Prospectus will appear in our columns in a few days.

The municipal election of Wilmington on Thursday last, resulted in the election of John Dawson, for Mayor, and Messrs. S. D. Wallace, Eli Murray, A. Adrian, and W. S. Anderson, Aldermen.

A GOOD PROPOSITION.—The recent murder of Mr. G. Hardison, in Craven County and the number of outrages in that section, prompts the Newbern Journal of Commerce to propose the raising of a $1000 by subscription, as a reward for the discovery of the perpetrators of the act.

DR. GARDNER.—This celebrated Oculist and Aurist is now at the Exchange Hotel, where he can be consulted for deafness and all diseases of the Eye. See his special notice.

CROWDED OUT.—Our advertisements and the Captions crowd out the excellent speech of Col. Hall, of New Hanover, on the loyalty resolutions, besides much other important matter.

PUBLICATION.—The Daily Sentinel will not be issued again until Friday next.

Postponement of Valuation of Lands.

The following important resolution passed by the Legislature, we publish for general information:

A RESOLUTION TO POSTPONE THE VALUATION OF THE LANDS OF THE STATE.

WHEREAS, In the opinion of the General Assembly, from the unsettled condition of the labor system in many parts of the State, and the uncertainty of our political condition, together with a scarcity of a circulating medium, and other causes, the valuation of the land of the State in the year 1867, will be, if carried into effect, altogether uncertain, and in many cases unreasonably low, and whereas it is believed, that it is more equitable to levy a low rate of Taxes on the valuation of 1860, with provision for valuation in case of extraordinary loss or gain, than to impose a higher rate on a new and depressed estimate. Therefore,

Resolved, That so much of the act for collecting Revenue, ratified March 12th, 1866, as provides for a re-valuation of the lands of the State in the year 1867, be repealed, and the Taxes on real estate in 1867, shall be imposed on the valuation thereof made in 1860, as modified under the provision for valuation in special cases by section 29 of the said act for collecting Revenue. [In General Assembly read three times and ratified this 15th day of December, A. D., 1866.

R. Y. McADEN,
Speaker of the House of Commons.
M. E. MANLY,
Speaker of the Senate.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 20th, 1866.

I, R. W. BEST, Secretary of State, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the original on file in this Office.

Given under my hand this 20th day of Dec. 1866.

R. W. BEST, Secretary of State.

25. Resolution declaring the loyalty of the citizens of North Carolina.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Examiner states that a Mr. Wetherby, of South Carolina, sent by members of the Legislature of that State, has been in Washington consulting leading Radicals, and that it is understood that he has returned to South Carolina, with assurances that so soon as that State passes the Howard amendment representatives from that State, duly qualified, will be admitted to Congress. It is said that the impression prevails that that State will be foremost to act in the matter. It is said that Mr. Wilson, of Mass., says that all the Southern States will adopt it before the 4th of March.—We doubt the correctness of the above in several particulars.

GEORGIA.—The papers state that the Georgia Legislature prefers a territorial condition to the Howard amendment. All true friends of the government and of the Constitution, will bear most any thing, before they will voluntarily take the amendment.

THE EYE AND EAR.

DR. GARDNER, the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, is now at the Exchange Hotel where he can be consulted for deafness and all diseases of the Eye. The Doctor has performed several cures since he has visited Raleigh, therefore those who require Medical or Surgical aid for defective Light or Hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief by going and consulting DR. REMARKS OF

MR. LONG, OF CABARRUS,

In the House on the 20th on the bill to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading.

MR. SPEAKER:—I view the bill under consideration as one of vital importance, and it demands our most mature and deliberate consideration. I regret to differ with my friends who manifest so much interest in the passage of this bill. I am sensibly impressed with the distressed condition of our people, and as anxious as any member of this House to adopt every legitimate measure for their relief. This bill proposes to alter the ordinance of the Convention, commonly called the Stay law, which expressly provides that the Legislature shall not "interfere with" before 1868, or in other words, that this ordinance shall only expire with its own limitation. The Convention was either a legally or an illegally constituted body. If illegal, neither the people nor the Courts are bound by its action; but the people have acquiesced in its acts, and the Courts of the State have recognized its validity. The Convention must be regarded as a Convention of plenary and unlimited powers except so far as it was restrained by the Constitution of the United States, else there is no Governor, no Legislature, nor other officers, and all the laws and acts of this Legislature will be void. If the Convention was limited in its powers to specific objects, it had no power over any other objects or subjects, and if it were so limited it is clear that the ordinance called the Stay law was illegally passed. But the Supreme Court has recognized the validity of the power of the Convention to repeal the Stay law passed by the last Legislature, so that if the Convention had power to repeal, it had the same power to enact a law on the subject. If the Convention was a valid Convention and unlimited in its powers, it had power to alter the Constitution or make a new one out and out,—to make ordinary and extraordinary laws. If it had the power to make a fundamental law of indefinite duration, it had the power to make one of definite duration. If it could settle the basis of representation for ten years it could do it for twenty. If it could tie the hands of the Legislature forever, it could tie them for two years.

It is manifest that if the Convention had the power to prohibit the Legislature from passing a stay law at any time, it had the power to prohibit it for a limited time, and if it had the power to prohibit the exercise of such a power by the Legislature, it had the power to exercise it itself and for such time as it should be deemed advisable.

It is not necessary to put any irrepealable law in the Constitution. The ordinance fixing the seat of government at Raleigh is not in the code of fundamental laws called the Constitution. It exists by itself. Of the same character is the Ordinance of 18th October, 1865, entitled "an ordinance declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, and for other purposes." The Ordinance is not technically a part of the Constitution; yet it can not be altered except when the power to do so is expressly granted.

If this be not so, then the convention had no power at all as a convention, and its ordinances relating to the war debt is a mere nullity.

As it exists it prohibits the General Assembly forever to assume such debts. Now if there be any virtue in this ordinance could not the convention have forbidden the Legislature to pay such debts until the year 1880? And if it had done so could the Legislature interfere before that time?

In reference to the Stay Law Ordinance the purpose of the convention to prohibit the interference of the Legislature is manifest.

The ordinance declaring void the ordinance of May 20th, 1861, is not a part of the Constitution technically, but is as fundamental as if it were and could not be abrogated by any legislative body; neither could the seat of government (which was fixed by the ordinance of a Convention) without the act of a Convention.

The idea that a Convention may enact a fundamental law for all time, but cannot for a limited time, is absurd, and that a Legislature may touch the latter but not the former, is preposterous indeed.

But, Mr. Speaker, I have detained you longer than I intended, and I am aware the House is becoming impatient to vote on this important measure.

If I am in error, I am with some of the brightest legal intellects of the State.

Thanking the House for its patient and polite attention, I resume my seat.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

For the speedy and certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Hayclock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude
